What is eFMLA?

eFMLA is a progressive, customer-centered organization established to enable employers to fully and easily administer FMLA in compliance with the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993. eFMLA has over 20 years of direct experience in labor and employment law, human resource management, and FMLA administration, along with online database systems, analysis, maintenance and hosting.

What can eFMLA do for me?

According the Bureau of Labor Statistics, employees are using the Family Leave Medical Act in increasing numbers.

- Since 1995, approximately 50 million employees have taken FMLA leave
- 64% of workers qualify to receive unpaid, job-secured leave under FMLA

Employers have struggled for years with the complicated process of completing and mailing forms, documenting and monitoring FMLA leaves, and complying with the new federal regulations that took effect in January 2009. Now is the time for you to simplify this process by conducting all of these requirements entirely online with eFMLA.
